

Corporate Biographies

Lance H. Jessee

Chairman of the Board

Mentored by his father in law and Posty Cards company founder, Carl Postlethwaite, Lance has been a part of the company for over 40 years. During that time, he has worked in every department of the company in both the manufacturing plant and corporate offices. He was appointed Treasurer in 1980 and became President of Posty Cards in 1990. Under his leadership, the company has experienced steady growth. When his son, Erick Jessee, was named President in 2010, Lance became Chairman of the Board and remains active in the company. Lance resides in Kansas City, MO with his wife, Pat Jessee.

Erick L. Jessee

President

Erick began his career in the booming California technology industry of the late 1980's. After 18 years of business and management experience in Silicon Valley, he joined the family business in 2001 as General Manager, playing a key role in the continuing success and modernization of the company. The third generation of the family to hold this position, Erick was appointed President of Posty Cards in 2010. He received his BA from Stanford University in 1989. Erick resides in Kansas City, MO with his wife Christie May Jessee and their daughter Joanna.

Media Contact

Janet Coats, (816) 231-2323, jcoats@postycards.com